

Padua University Summer School Program 2019

in collaboration with

Qatar University and Hamad Bin Khalifa University

LAW AND LEGAL PRACTICE IN EUROPE AND THE MIDDLE EAST: A WORLD OF OPPORTUNITY

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

THE PROGRAM

The Program in Law and Transnational Practice: A World of Opportunity is a great occasion to develop your global legal thinking in an area of growing business and to intercept a flow of transnational interests.

The Summer School addresses two of the main challenges confronting contemporary legal practice. One is the need to develop legal skills that address critical issues arising in a global context. The other one is to prepare for the cultural, political and technological changes that impact law and legal practice.

The Program thus combines the technical and cultural aspects of the legal profession on a transnational level, benefitting from the contribution of distinguished law professors, outstanding practitioners and innovators working and living in two vitally important strategic regions for the future: Europe and the Middle East.

If you are keen on enriching your learning experience with fascinating seminars and master's classes do not hesitate to apply! Info and deadlines below.
