

International Arbitration – Selected Issues

Doctoral Course

held by

Prof. Catherine Kessedjian

Université Paris 2, Panthéon-Assas

Padua

27-28 April, 12-13 and 26 May 2015

School of Law, Palazzo del Bo

***

Program

International Arbitration and Public Policy

Palazzo del Bo, aula L – 16:30-18:30

27-28 April

International Arbitration and European Law

The Interplay with the Brussels I and Ibis Regulations, and the Mediation Directive

Palazzo del Bo, aula L – 16:30-18:30 (12 May)

Palazzo del Bo, aula Gabbin – 14:30-16:30 (13 May)

12-13 May

International Investment Arbitration

Palazzo del Bo, aula Gabbin – 14:30-16:30

26 May

***

2015 Visiting Scientist Program

Prof. Kessedjian Doctoral Course is organized at the University of Padua Department for Public Law, International Law and EU Law in the framework of the Visiting Scientist Program 2015 of the University of Padua (Scientific Referent Prof. Bernardo Cortese)

University of Padua Doctoral Students

The Doctoral Course is offered primarily to PhD students enrolled at the University of Padua Doctoral School in International Law, Private Law and Labor Law, and at the University of Padua Doctoral School in Law

University of Padua PhD Students should please confirm their participation to eleonora.paggi@studenti.unipd.it

Admission of External Students

Participation by PhD Students enrolled at other Italian Universities, as well as at Universities of EU and Associated Countries, and at the European University Institute is welcome.

Interested PhD students should apply to the Scientific Referent of the Course, Prof. Bernardo Cortese, by sending an email to bernardo.cortese@unipd.it

Application by external students should include an Academic CV and specify the name of the University you are enrolled at, the title of your PhD project, and name and email address of your PhD referent.